

Independence Bank

To: All Media
Date: April 13, 2016

for: immediate release

Independence Bank Expanding to Mayfield KY

The fastest-growing bank in Kentucky has expanded its footprint into Mayfield KY. Long-time banker Darwin Towery has been named Graves County President for Independence Bank, which will immediately establish a loan production office at 337 Charles Street, Suite 2 with plans to quickly settle in to a full-service banking location. Construction of a permanent location will soon follow.

“For someone who has been in banking all of my life, it’s exciting to join a financial institution that has a strong focus on the customer and the community like Independence Bank. Their brand and reputation has been proven in the Paducah and Murray markets and I look forward to serving my hometown and working with a company that brings a revolutionary way of banking to the customer,” said Towery.

Chris Reid, CEO of Independence Bank shared, “The Mayfield community is a wonderful community. It’s just the kind of place we like to call home. Mayfield, Darwin and Independence Bank are a natural fit. We are very excited to be entering Graves County and are looking forward to expanding existing relationships and establishing new ones.”

Independence Bank is a regional community Bank with 22 locations throughout Calloway, Daviess, Graves, Franklin, Hancock, Henderson, Hopkins, Jefferson, McCracken, McLean, Warren and Webster counties with assets of $1.8 billion.

###

The more you know,
the safer your money.

